

Young Leaders' Program (YLP)

Healthcare administration course

Nagoya University Graduate school of Medicine

Start re-skilling and get Master's Degree with us !

What is YLP ?

- A special Master's Degree program
- Duration : One year
- Expected participants : Promising young (≤ 40) public officials working for governmental health sector with ≥ 5 years of working experience
- Full scholarship by the Japanese government
- Language : The curriculum is taught entirely in English (IELTS ≥ 6 or TOEFL iBT ≥ 80).
- You can : be a future national leader, form international friendly relationship, and improve the quality of public policy of your country
- Graduates : 215 (Generation 20) * As of Sep. 2023

What can you learn ?

- Administrative Regulations for Health
- Healthcare Service Facilities and Professionals
- Biostatistics
- Epidemiology
- Community Health and International Health
- Occupational and Environmental Health
- Health Insurance and Economics
- Medical Law
- Pharmacy Management
- Hospital Administration
- Field Trips / Site Visit / Japanese Culture

Full Scholarship ?

- 242,000 Yen monthly stipend
- Application fee and Tuition are exempted.
- A round trip airplane ticket to/from your country is provided.
- Accommodation is provided at dormitory.

Visit Us !

Nagoya University, Graduate School of Medicine

Department of Healthcare Administration

* Application period : Jul. – Oct.

* Further info : Contact Japanese embassy in your country