

Special medical examination for students who use radioisotopes or radiation in 2024 fiscal year

Announcement of the 1st examination

- Eligible persons: Students who will use RI or radiation for the first time in May - June in 2024
- A newly registered Radiation Worker is required to have an annual medical checkup in addition to a special medical checkup.
- Please make a reservation through our website in advance.

You need your THERS Mail Account.

(Students: nagoya.taro.x9@s.mail.nagoya-u.ac.jp)

- Reservation period: April 18th 9:00 - May 7th 12:00
- Health Administration Office <http://www.htc.nagoya-u.ac.jp/hokenkanri/>

Date	May 8th (Wed) 13:30-15:30 May 9th (Thu) 13:30-15:30 May 10th (Fri) 13:30-15:30
Place	Health Administration Office
Items to examine	✓ Blood test (counts of red and white blood cells, hemoglobin content or hematocrit, differential leukocyte count) ✓ Skin examination ✓ Eye examination (cataract)
What to bring	✓ Student card ✓ Health check sheet with oral interviews (Please complete necessary information in advance.)

- ✓ According to the 23rd article of Laws Concerning the Prevention from Radiation Hazards due to Radioisotopes and Others, users of RI or radiation must undergo the above special medical examination before they enter controlled area for the first time.
- ✓ Next examination is scheduled in July 2024.
- ✓ If you cannot undergo the examination during the period, you must undergo the examination of the above-mentioned items and submit the results to the office of your school.

Health Administration Office