

2024 US-Japan SEMINAR ON TRAUMA CARE: SHARING KNOWLEDGE and ADVANCING PRACTICE

7/8 (Mon) 4:10 pm to 5:50 pm

Location: Meeting Room No 1
(Basic Medical Research Building 1st Floor)

DukeHealth

Dr. David Gordon

Department of Emergency
Medicine
Associate Professor
Associate Program Director

NAGOYA
UNIVERSITY

Dr. Naoyuki Matsuda

Department of Emergency &
Critical Care Medicine
Professor

NAGOYA
UNIVERSITY

Dr. Takanori Yamamoto

Department of Emergency &
Critical Care Medicine
Lecturer

NAGOYA
UNIVERSITY

Dr. Katsuhiro Tokutake

Department of Hand Surgery
Assistant Professor

Explore the forefront of trauma care and education with esteemed experts at our upcoming seminar. Designed for medical professionals and students alike, this event offers a unique opportunity to delve into advanced trauma treatment techniques and the latest educational systems. Featuring:

- In-depth Analysis of Japan's Trauma Care System
- Advanced Techniques in Limb Trauma Care
- A Comprehensive Look at Duke University's Trauma Care and Education

This seminar will provide valuable insights and networking opportunities, fostering a better understanding of international standards in trauma care. Don't miss this chance to enhance your knowledge and expand your professional horizon.

Chairman : Professor Naoyuki Matsuda

Lecture 1:

"The Structure of Trauma Care in Japan"

Lecturer Takanori Yamamoto

Lecture 2:

"Limb Trauma Care"

Assistant Professor Katsuhiro Tokutake

Invited Lecture:

"Trauma Care and Trauma Education at Duke University"

Associate Professor David Gordon